

Gimme Shelter

JENNIFER GOULD KEIL

HEM AND HAW

AUSSIE actor Chris Hemsworth recently checked out a penthouse at the Beekman Residences that's on the market for $12.49 million. While the "Avengers" star lives primarily in Byron Bay, on Australia's eastern coast near Brisbane — with his wife, Spanish actress Elsa Pataky, and their three kids — the family is still looking for a pied-à-terre in the Big Apple. The 3,554-square-foot penthouse at 5 Beekman St. in the Financial District, designed by Thomas Juul-Hansen, comes with three bedrooms and four bathrooms. Building amenities include a private dining room with a chef's table, a catering kitchen, a media room with a wet bar and a rooftop terrace with barbecue grills and dining areas. There's also a gym, treatment rooms and personal trainer options. Housekeeping services and fresh flower delivery are also available, as is room service from Tom Colicchio's restaurant, Temple Court, located in the Beekman Hotel at the base of the building. The listing brokers are Douglas Elliman's Eleonora Srugo and Emory Stewart.
